DISTRICT CONVENTION.

Republicans Assembled at

E. P. McAdams, Chairman Repubhean Committee for the 6th Judicial District, called the Republicans to order in the Court House at Hawesville to consider the nomination of District officers. The counties represented were Daviess and Hancock, with a letter from Chairman Tinsley to Mr. Mr. McAdams to represent Ohio county.

E. P. McAdams, of Hancock, was elected Chairman and James R Hige don, of Daviess, Secretary. The Convention decided to name candidates for Judicial offices, N. B. Chambers nominated Gen. D. L. Adair, of Hancock, for Circuit Judge. George Yager seconded the nominas tion and moved it be made unanimous. The motion prevailed and nominee for Circuit Judge

Hardinsburg was beaten there by a score of 16 to 7. The score last Saturday stood 8 to 7 in favor of our boys. About 300 people witnessed the game and the excitement of the scene can not be easily imagined when one of the home nine knocked a home run in the last half of the ninth inning, thus winning the game. Umbrellas were waved, hats tossed in the air and yell after yell from 300 throats rent the skies. My DEAR SIR: - Your courteous favor of August 16th reaches me on my return this morning from the East, I beg to express to you, and through you to the Republican club of Hardinsburg my best thanks for the distinction in confers in electing me an bonorary member. The Republicans of Kentucky have always had the courage of their convictions and have made as was needed an aggression campaign for their party. They have been rewarded at times by considerable success, which I am sure it is within the power of such organizations as yours to make much greater in the future. There is no real reason why Kentucky, which still worships the memory of Henry Clay, should cast its political lot with the party, which tramples under foot Henry Clay's political teachings. Relying greatly for future gains upon the work of such clubs as yours, and with renewed Yours truly, thanks, I am, WHITLOW REID.

The club felt highly honored by thus being recognized by our two distinguished candidates. Purtis.

GREETING. - We are nearing anoth, er Presidential contest. It behooves sue square in the face and in the future, as in the past, be found on the side of Right, Justice and Equity.

Our limited education in Science of Government, prevents us from thoroughly understanding the economic questions that will be discussed during the campaign and voted upon at the approaching election, yet, No Colored Man need be deceived, as the lines are already drawn. The Democratic party through its platforms, policies and methods has always been, as it is to-day, the avowed enemy of the laboring masses in general, and the Negro in particular. It is true, however, that here and there throughout the country we may find an individual Democrat who has done a great many good things for individual colored hest history of the Government to the present day, they have always objected to every measure, local or Nationocratic party favors and favor whatever they oppose. We may not with our limited education know much about the Tariff, and the unlimited coinage of silver, but we do know that where Republican ideas prevail the people, regardless of color, are more prosperous and feel as American citizens, "secure in the pursuits of life, liberty and happi-

I would not in this underestimate your intelligence or ımpugn your fidelity to the great principles that under. lie our National fabric, but knowing as I do the efforts that are being and will be put forth by Democrats to I advise the speedy organization of clubs throughout the county. In opposition to your efforts in this directhe Republican party ever done for the negro?" To such give this short but comprehensive answer: "All that has been done," Some will say: "It is time for the colored race to divide their political strength between the would be more conducive to the best interests of the Negro American." This is all political clap-trap. The time to divide has not yet come, and will not be here until the Democratic party North and South, in States where they hold undisputed sway, accord to the negro, the same political rights, privileges and immunities as are enjoyed by those of the more favored race. Then we will divide. Then we will-if such a thing be possible-forget the past. Then, and not until then, will we forgive the wrongs heaped upon us for nearly three centuries. The past brilliant history of the Re publican party and the present National Administration speaks for itself. Its achievements under the wise patriotic guidance of Harrison and Blaine, will, as the ages sweep by, shine in the face of coming genera tions with increased luster. Yours, for God and my country, G. W. HATTON. Louisville, Ky., Sept. 26, '92.

CAMPBELLSVILLE. Sept. 27 .- Hon, C. M. Barnett, Republican nominee for Congress in the Fourth Congressional District, spoke at this place on the 24th mst, to the largest Republican gathering ever met in the county. Mr. Barnett's speech of one hour and forty-five minutes, was listened to with profound interest and created the wildest enthusiasm among the Republicans of the county.

Mr. Barnett is making friends wherever he goes and if the Republicans of the District will do their full duty between now and the 8th day of November, he will be elected. Don't sit and say we can't, but we can and will is the watch word.

We expect a speech from Col. J. S. R. Wedding before the election. Come on Bro. Wedding, we will give you a Taylor county reception.

The two former reccommended the use of charts, and gave their plan of using them in primary readmen, but as a party from the very ear- ing. Mr. Elmore gave some good suggestions among which was a method he was using at present in his advanced classes. Having his pupils al, giving to the negro equal political in these classes to bring up a sentence rights. Judging, therefore, from the for a definition other than the one past, I have always found it a safe found in the text-book. He said the criterion to oppose whatever the Dems | results obtained were very interesting. Each of them said that the pupils should be retained in the reader until he thoroughly mastered it.

How to Control Children was then discussed at some length by the patrous and teachers.

The importance of Teachers' Meetings was discussed by A. P. Taylor. After some preliminary remarks by several of the teachers, adjourned to meet at Bell's Run October 15, 1892. We extend to the people of King's District our sincere thanks for the courteous manner in which we were entertained and commend them for interest manifested in the educational cause.
